

INVITATION TO ATTEND

Retirement Information Workshop

The Office of Human Resources (OHR) Benefits team invites you to attend a PRP retirement information session in the month of June regarding University sponsored tax-advantaged savings options: 403(b), 403(b) Roth, and 457 plans. These sessions are hosted by OHR Benefits and feature presenters from each of Howard's three investment vendors: VALIC, ING, and TIAA-CREF. Each session will be two hours in length and describe the characteristics, benefits and limitations of 403(b), 403(b) Roth, 457(b), and defined benefit plans. Learn about the tax implications of receiving your PRP incentive payment and receive expert advice on what options are available to you.

PRP Retirement Information Workshop Schedule

All sessions will be hosted at the Howard Leadership Institute, The Howard Center, 2225 Georgia Avenue NW, 3rd Floor, Vashon Conference Room - Room 328, Washington, DC 20059

The University is sponsoring these information sessions as general information about its investment plans; the University does not provide investment advice and all information presented by vendors is fully independent. These sessions are not a part of the financial advisor voucher benefit offered through February 2012 to all faculty eligible to apply to the Phased Retirement Program. The independent financial advisor PRP voucher benefit has expired.
